

YELLOFAK 5

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

Approved For Release 2001/11/23 : CIA-RDP82-00457R001200210010-8

SECRET

25X1A

FLN
216

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
INTELLIGENCE REPORT

COUNTRY Germany (Russian Zone)

DATE: 144126

SUBJECT Recent Soviet OB Notes

INFO: [REDACTED]

25X1C

25X1A

DIST: 8 January 1948

ORIGIN [REDACTED]

PAGES 2

SUPPLEMENT

25X1X
5X1!

CONFIDENTIAL

1. Leipzig: New troops in Leipzig are believed to belong to an armored corps. Some [REDACTED] and, in the [REDACTED] 25X1C 5X1!
2. Weimar: Occupied by two armored rifle regiments and one artillery detachment. Some twelve to fifteen armored reconnaissance cars have been observed. [REDACTED] 5X1!
3. Rudolstadt (J54): Houses one motorized rifle regiment, one artillery detachment, and one reconnaissance detachment with six armored cars.
4. Saalfeld (J53): Occupied by one motorized rifle regiment.
5. Weissenfels (J99): Barracks are occupied by one armored regiment, equipped with sixty-five T-34's and twelve JS-3's. Vehicles are marked with a four-leaf clover.
6. Naumburg (J89): Still occupied by two rifle regiments and one engineering battalion (with motorized bridge "train") of 57th Guards Rifle Division. Increased instruction in the use of vehicles is being given these men; motorization of the division is being contemplated. Approximately 400 men from motorized units of another division are billeted in the Barbara Barracks.
7. Jena (J66): All Jena barracks have been entirely occupied since 20 October. The troops, who arrived by night trains, include many youngsters who appear to be new to Germany, and are allocated as follows:

Jena-Zwätzen Barracks: one armored detachment from Zeitz; staff of an armored school.

Jena-Zwätzen Agricultural School: one motorized light artillery unit, with eighteen 75 mm guns with split-trail carriages and four 50 mm AT guns.

25X1X

Jena-Löbstedt Barracks: one assault artillery unit and another artillery unit with guns of assorted calibers. [REDACTED] the following: seven 75 mm guns with split-trail carriages, five

CLASSIFICATION

SECRET

Document No. 009
NO CHANGE in Class. DECLASSIFIED
Class CHANGED TO: TS S
Auth: DDA Memo 1 Apr 77
Auth: DDA REG. 72/1763
Date: 28 APR 1978

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the DDA Memo 1 Apr 77 (or the DDA REG. 72/1763).
REF ID: A654244
REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

~~SECRET~~ CONFIDENTIAL

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

144126

25X1A

25X1X
25X1X

- 122 mm guns, and six tanks with long barreled guns.
8. Döblau (D83): New armored troops have arrived in Döblau. Eight very heavy tanks were observed in the Döblauer Heide woods; [REDACTED] tanks of a type larger than the JS.
9. Nietleben (D82): Fifteen to twenty JS and T-34 tanks, seen on the airfield on 18 October, apparently belonged to an armored training school.

25X1X

10. [REDACTED] movements:

24 October (day): One freight train with troops and light and heavy guns, moved through Halle, direction Naumburg-Saalfeld.

24 October (night): Two troop trains, each with approximately one battalion, proceeded in the direction of Weissenfels.

26 October (night): One freight train with approximately twenty prime movers and tractors moved in the direction of Weissenfels.

11. Parchim (P74): On 3 October, when it was visited by Marshal Sokolovsky and sixteen Soviet generals, Parchim was occupied by some 15,000 "elite" troops, equipped with light tanks (no heavy tanks in evidence), armored reconnaissance cars, light and heavy artillery. Other units were in the woods around Siggelte, Flate, and Gross Goden. All Parchim street signs have been removed and replaced by others in Russian. It is rumored that a headquarters is to be established in the town.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

~~SECRET~~

CONFIDENTIAL